Notes:

- The 'angles in fence line' define the range of angles covered by the scope. These are measured between the attack faces of two adjacent fence posts.
- The fencing system should only be constructed using components supplied by ARX Security.
- The fencing systems are approved for installation surface mounted on top of the ground, as detailed on the documents listed in the table above titled 'Approved Assembly and Installation Drawings'.
- The gate panels are only for use as part of the ARX Fencing System and are not available as stand-alone gates.
